Our team

Our lawyers are experienced in both non-contentious advisory and drafting work, dispute avoidance and in the resolution of claims and disputes through ADR, litigation, arbitration and adjudication.

We have experience of all the major UK standard forms of building contract as well as bespoke drafting. We advise on a wide range of building, engineering, and plant related contracts, which includes drafting and negotiating construction and engineering contracts, consultants' appointments, warranties, bonds and guarantees.

Our record with adjudications is unblemished and we have vast experience of arbitrations and court proceedings.

Manches is a leading commercial law firm in London, Oxford and Reading.

From our London office we provide a full range of services in construction law. This combines with commercial law advice in property, corporate finance, insolvency, employment, technology, media, intellectual property and commercial matters generally along with a full litigation and arbitration service.

We also have a leading family law team and supporting private client practice.

The firm has a focus on specialist areas including real estate, public sector, international wealth protection, technology and retail.
