

MANCHES

CORPORATE

Our corporate finance group focuses on the owner-managed sector, smaller quoted companies and the divisions of major multi-nationals. We have in-depth experience in working in specific market sectors including retail, real estate, technology and international wealth protection where we work with other groups within the firm.

We have close relationships with a wide range of institutional contacts and intermediaries. In addition to our mid market practice in the UK, we work extensively on cross border transactions.

We have strong overseas connections, particularly in North America, Europe, the Middle East and the Far East.

Our approach

We get close to your business, providing the proactive advice essential in securing a successful deal. We are experts in distilling a matter down to its key points and finding innovative solutions.

At Manches, you will receive the attention of partners who have accumulated a wealth of experience. We focus on delivering the most effective service at every stage and on managing your cost expectations.
