Our approach

Whether dealing with financial issues or arrangements for children, our starting point is negotiation - resolving differences practically and efficiently, with style and imagination. However, should court proceedings be the only route forward, we will prepare your case thoroughly and present it effectively.

Family break ups are stressful and difficult, particularly when children are involved. We will support you through the whole process with discretion and sensitivity. We will keep you informed at every stage and make sure that you understand what is happening.

If your case has complex tax, company, property or trust issues, we have access to the expertise of the broader Manches firm in all these areas.
